WELCOME TO GREEN RUN CONSTRUCTION

We're proud to be among the best home remodeling contractors in Sonoma County since 1994 specializing in kitchen and bathroom remodeling. Green Run Construction's roots go back to 1992 when our founder started remodeling homes throughout the Bay Area in Northern California. As the years have come and gone, our company has improved many homes and businesses with our signature of quality and customer satisfaction. We strive to give you your dream kitchen. Among the best remodeling contractors in Sonoma County, we became the single source for our clients to call when they were looking to make improvements where they lived and worked.

In keeping with the times, and the demands to improve the efficiency of our living and working environments, Home Improvement Specialist has moved into a new phase of growth and opportunity. We have since changed our name to Green Run Construction to reflect our passion and focus as we now can offer our past and future clients strategies to make a healthier, more comfortable, cost effective, and sustainable environment.

When it comes to kitchen remodeling, there are several things that you will want to consider, especially when choosing the right kitchen remodeling contractor that's best for your project. With that said, as one of many local kitchen remodeling contractors in Sonoma County, it's important you find a highly experienced contractor that really understands the ins and outs of kitchen remodeling that can also work within your budget and timeline.

Your kitchen is the primary space in your home that can get you the greatest return on your investment. According to a recent article published by Remodeling Magazine, the average ROI for a kitchen remodel is between 60-80% depending on the over-all condition of the home, in addition to other deciding factors. Not only is remodeling your kitchen a great return on your investment, but it makes a tremendous impact on the quality of life in your home such as family time, preparing meals together, and hosting holiday events throughout the year. Your kitchen can be the heart of your home and the one space that can really make the most positive impact in our lives when its remodeled.
